(c) to (e) So far as North-East States are concerned, no instance of fake surrender has been reported. However, there has been an instance of fake surrender in J&K in which 26 youth from Kashmiri Valley were lured by three persons namely Bashir Ahmed Bhat @ gola, a released militant of Hizbullah outfit, son of Sonaullah resident of Hafroo Batpora, Master Mohd Maqbool Malla resident of Sogom (Chadoora) and Nazir Ahmed Bhat son of Ab. Salam resident of Jawahar Nagar, Srinagar promising them jobs and financial help. The surrenderees were given fake names of active terrorists and missing persons believed to be in PoK/Pak presently. All the three accused persons have been arrested.

The Surrender Policy announced by the State Government contains adequate provisions to detect fake surrenders.
